1) Complete the following sentences using the suggested words by dragging them and dropping them where they belong:

vertebrates	differences	grouping
Mammary glands	invertebrates	kingdoms

Classification means _____ living things according to their similarities and _____. All living things are classified into five main _____. Kingdom Animalia is the largest kingdom, it's divided into two main groups. _____ are the animals with a backbone and _____ are the animals without a backbone. We are considered mammals mainly because we have _____.

2) Match each animal with the group it belongs to:

Penguin

Lizard

Cow

Sea horse

Frog

Mammal

Fish

Reptile

Amphibian

Bird

3) Compare between the following animals by dragging the suggested points and dropping them where they fit:

a-

Warm-blooded	Lay eggs	Blowhole	Scales	Fish
Mammary glands	Gills	Mammal	Cold-blooded	Give birth

Orca whales	Sharks

b-

Fur	Bird	Lay eggs	Beak
Give birth	Mammary glands	Feathers	Mammal

Bats	Penguins