

Name _____ Date _____

Questions

1. Where can you find matter? _____
2. What are the three states of matter? _____

3. How is the shape of solid matter different from the shape of liquids and gases?

4. Explain why the shape of solid matter cannot change on its own.

5. Give two examples of solids _____
6. How do the shapes of liquids change? _____
7. Explain why liquids can change shape.

8. Give two examples of liquids. _____
9. What other state of matter is similar to liquids? _____ What makes them similar?

10. Explain why a balloon gets bigger when you blow into it.

11. How can matter change from a liquid to a gas?

12. How can matter change from a liquid to a solid?

