Each sentence contains a made-up word. Use other words in each sentence as context clues to help you determine the meaning of the made-up words.

1)	I saw a beautiful turoc with blue feathers flying above the trees.
	What does it sound like a turoc is?
2)	After practice, I was so hallus that I drank three glasses of water!
	What does it sound like hallus means?
3)	Even though trees grow on both sides of a nollob , I only ride my bike on one side.
	What does it sound like a nollob is?
4)	Moving his arms and kicking his feet as hard as he could, Jason murred as fast as he could to the shore.
	What does it sound like murred means?
5)	I raked all the dried kolops into a big pile and then jumped into them.
	What does it sound like kolops are?
6)	The tree is so zeemus that it created a shadow over the entire yard.

What does it sound like zeemus means?

