1 → 2 → 3 EZ club @LizaPrav

The Necklace by Guy de Maupassant

Put the verbs in brackets in Past Simple

She (dress) plainly, she (suffer) endlessly

One evening her husband (come) home with an air of triumph

She (throw) the invitation on the table resentfully

She (stare) at him angrily, two large tears (run) slowly

She (go) to her friend's house and (tell) her of her distress

The day of the party (arrive) , she (dance) wildly

Poverty (contrast) sharply with the elegance

I (touch) it in the hall at the Ministry.

He (compromise) the rest of his life

She (play) her part heroically

She (sit down) near the window and (think)of that evening

Which question do the following words answer?

plainly endlessly resentfully angrily slowly wildly sharply heroically

Are they adjectives adverbs or pronouns ?

LIVEWORKSHEETS