Operational Safety Quiz

Multiple-Choice Questions

Choose the best answer to each question by selecting the appropriate letter.

1. What is the main goal of occupational safety?
   a. Prevention
   b. Safety
   c. All of the above
   d. None of the above

2. Managers and employees must work together to keep both front of house and back of house areas from becoming a _____.
   a. socializing area
   b. safety risk
   c. mess
   d. eyesore

3. What is a job safety analysis?
   a. A detailed report that lists all employee expectations and behavior guidelines
   b. A detailed report that lists procedures all employees must follow during an emergency
   c. A detailed report that analyses employee performance
   d. A detailed report that lists every job function performed by all employees

Section 15.3 Quiz

Multiple-Choice Questions

Choose the best answer to each question by circling the appropriate letter.

1. Risk management is the process of:
   a. Assessing existing risks
   b. Taking action to minimize or prevent risks
   c. Preventing unforeseen accidental loss by implementing a safety program
   d. All of the above

2. In order for a risk management program to succeed, it must have the full support of:
   a. Top management,
   b. Employees
   c. All of the above
   d. None of the above

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Which element of a health and safety program states that effective communication within the company must keep employees informed about policies, procedures, goals, and progress regarding safety and health issues?
   a. Workplace design and engineering
   b. Training and orientation
   c. Organizational communications
   d. Assessments, audits, and evaluations

4. Which element of a health and safety program states that all safety and health programs must address risks beyond the organization's walls by creating contingency plans for "what if" worst-case scenarios and other liability exposures?
   a. Management and control of external exposures
   b. Training and orientation
   c. Organizational communications
   d. Motivation, behavior, and attitudes

5. Which element of a health and safety program states that establishing and maintaining safe and healthful conditions requires identifying hazards, evaluating their potential effects, developing ways to eliminate or control them, and planning action priorities?
   a. Hazard recognition, evaluation, and control
   b. Environmental management
   c. Safety performance management
   d. Motivation, behavior, and attitudes

Section 15.4 Quiz

True or False
Indicate whether each statement is true or false by selecting the appropriate letter.

1. OSHA was created in 1983 by the federal government to make certain that the safety and health concerns of American workers were being met.
   a. True
   b. False

2. OSHA is tasked with providing training and educational programs to small businesses and corporations for the purpose of improving workplace safety and health.
   a. True
   b. False

3. Labels on chemical containers are not necessary if the employee is familiar with the color and smell of the chemical.
   a. True
   b. False

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. All employers must provide training to employees required to work with hazardous chemicals and update training whenever a new chemical is introduced into the workplace.
   a. True
   b. False

5. OSHA is expected to inspect all businesses for compliance with this standard and to fine or shut down any business found to be in violation.
   a. True
   b. False

Section 15.5 Quiz

Multiple-Choice Questions
Choose the best answer to each question by selecting the appropriate letter.

1. The three operational safety rules are: take adequate time, do it safely the first time and _____.
   a. Establish a safety policy
   b. Conduct reoccurring training
   c. Post all MSDS information
   d. None of the above

2. Almost _____ work-related injuries results from a slip, trip, or fall.
   a. One in every five
   b. Two in every five
   c. Three in every five
   d. Four in every five

3. How many people are killed by falls at work each year?
   a. 530
   b. 320
   c. 1,200
   d. 2,200

4. All of the following are methods in preventing workplace slip and falls accidents, EXCEPT:
   a. Warn others that a hazard exists by placing signs or cones
   b. Post signs to warn of dangerous areas
   c. Remove snow, mud, etc., from shoes when entering a building
   d. Walk quickly over hazardous areas to avoid increasing your chance of falling

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. One of the most common on-the-job injuries is due to _____.
   a. Carelessness
   b. Improper lifting
   c. Confusing signs
   d. None of the above

LIVEWORKSHEETS