COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES

Read the following sentences and find the mistakes in each one. The number of the parenthesis is the number of mistakes in each one. Rewrite the sentence in the correct form.

- I think cake is more sweet than bread. (1)
- I think email is more faster than letters. (1)
- I think trains are more worse for the environment than airplanes. (1)
- I think taxis are more fast than buses. (1)
- Cars are more bad for the environment than bicycles. (1)
- When I commute in my car the time is more shorter than when taking a taxi. (1)
- She travels to school slower than me. (1)
- Taxis are a lot more quick than buses. (1)
- A camel is more slower than a husky. (1)
- A camel is more useful than a husky because they can upload more things. (1)
- Motorcycles in Colombia are as popular as Greece. (1)
- I think that camels are strongest desert animals. (1)
- Camels are bigger than husky, but husky are faster. (2)
- Husky is faster than camel, but camel is the biggest (4)
- Motorcycle are quicker than byclycles, but bicycles are safest for security. (3)
- Trains are good than buses, but buses are chepest. (3)
- Travel by planes is more expensive than cars, but planes are fastest transportation. (4)
- Ships are worst than planes and ships are slowest. (2)
- Cars are popular than taxis, but buses are the cheapest. (1)
- I think a team huskies is more beautiful than a team camel. (4 – it's the same mistake twice)
- I think a camels are less popular than a husky. (1)

LIVEWORKSHEETS