

Lesson 3a: Worksheet 1

Food from around the world: what food do you like – classroom materials

Lesson 3a: Worksheet 2

Curry is a spicy food. You eat it with bread or rice.

Fish and chips isn't healthy, but it is delicious! Many people like to eat it out of paper at the seaside.

Sushi is rice with sea food and vegetables. It looks beautiful and it is healthy too.

Tacos are meat or beans wrapped in a flour tortilla. Sometimes you eat them with different sauces

A lot of British people enjoy drinking tea.

Stir fry is a very healthy food. Many people in Asia eat it. They eat it with noodles.

Injera be wot is spicy meat stew with flatbread.

Lesson 3c: Worksheet 7

Haggis is the national dish of Scotland. It is a sheep's stomach stuffed with oats, spices and sheep organs.

Yorkshire pudding is salty, not sweet. It is made with eggs, flour and milk. People usually eat it with beef, potatoes and other vegetables.

Baked beans are popular in the UK because they are cheap and easy to cook.
Tinned beans in sweet tomato sauce on a thin slice of toast – delicious!

True or false?

1. Haggis comes from Scotland.
2. Haggis is a good meal for vegetarians.
3. Yorkshire puddings are very sweet.
4. People usually eat Yorkshire pudding with ice cream.
5. Beans on toast is an expensive meal.
6. Not many people like baked beans.