

You will hear some information about superstitions in Malaysia.

Listen to the short recording and fill in the blanks with the correct information. Write your answer in one word.

- 1 A pregnant woman should not _____ any animal. This is because her child when born will have the _____ of the animal.

- 2 Never _____ or _____ on a book, or you will become stupid.

- 3 Do not _____ your legs wherever you are. Shaking your legs is seen as shaking away your wealth and _____

- 4 Bad luck will befall you if you _____ on a Monday, or _____ your hair on a Thursday.

- 5 When you are home from a _____ or funeral, always _____ yourself clean with water or 'flower water,' otherwise ghosts will follow you home to haunt you.

- 6 Do not _____ facing a _____, or you will see ghosts at night.

- 7 To make sure that your future _____ will be pretty or handsome, do not _____ any leftovers on your plate.

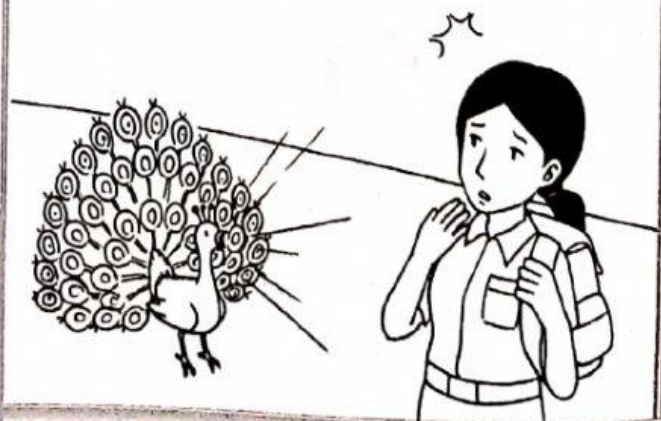

- 8 Never _____ a friend a clock as a gift. It is considered bad luck or _____. It symbolises death.

- 9 Don't _____ your fingernails at night, or it will shorten your _____.

- 10 It is lucky to come across a _____ on one's journey to somewhere, but it's unlucky to _____ it shrill.

Core Civic Value

Core Value: Mutual Respect

Topic: Unique Malaysia

Activity: Among these ten customs/ superstitions, pick one that you are familiar with. Do a one-minute presentation about how this custom/ superstition affects your life. Conclude your presentation with your thoughts about the subject.