Conventions

Subjects and Predicates

Directions Select what part is highlightened in each sentence.

1. Many useful tools are made from metal. Subject Predicate

2. Steel is an important metal for buildings and tools. Subject Predicate

3. This alloy contains a mixture of iron and carbon. Subject Predicate

4. An iron bar will rust over time. Subject Predicate

5. Oxygen from the air mixes with the metal. Subject Predicate

Directions Complete the sentences . Drag the correct answer.

The coyotes El Trueno were Sal Cassy

1. _____ began to buck and spin like a beast possesed.

2. _____ became a fine young vaquera.

3. _____obliged Sal with a lullaby to get sleep soon.

4._____ is the short name of the rattlesnake "Cascabel".

5.Sal and El trueno_____ inseparable.

Directions Write F after a fragment. Write R after a run-on. Write S after a complete sentence.

1.Has been replaced by plastic in many products. _____

2..Plastic is hard and durable at the same time, it is lighter than metal. _____

3.Many parts of today's trucks and automobiles. _____

4.Plastic is not only lighter than metal, it is cheaper, too. _____

5.Just think about all the uses for plastic! _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS