

C1.3

Review of Phrasal Verbs

Pull out, end up, break down, lay aside, shell out, phase out, tear down, get along, fade away, crack down

1. Tobacco companies were believed millions of dollars in damages to smokers last year, but they didn't do it.
2. The grudges (already) before the divorced couple met up for their daughter's graduation ceremony.
3. No sooner on criminals than the downtown became a safer and nicer to walk at night.
4. The government the old hospital and build a new one, at least that is their plan for 2023.
5. I (really) with my sister's husband; however, I always try to be polite whenever he's around.
6. If I were you, I of that risky business before it's too late.
7. It's high time your son wearing diapers, he's almost 4 years old.
8. The car three times this month, it's high time we bought a new one.
9. I would rather my husband so much every month and instead we could use the money to travel before we're too old for that.
10. If she continues to spend like that, she penniless.