

Choose the correct option.

The early hunters and gatherers settled along the river:

Tapti

Narmada

Ganga

The earliest cities started to develop along river:

Indus

Ganga

Narmada

..... was the earliest kingdom to develop.

Nalanda

Harappa

Magadha

Q2. Fill in the blanks.

Early people settled near rivers because:

- a. They got enough _____ for all their daily needs like _____, _____ and _____.
- b. The soil near the rivers was _____ and _____. So, it was easy to grow crops.
- c. There were plenty of _____ and plants near the rivers. So, it was easy to gather _____, _____ and seeds.
- d. Animals came to the rivers to drink water so it was good _____ area.
- e. People could catch _____ from rivers to eat.

- f. Transport was easy as they could travel using logs or by building simple rafts.

Differentiate between manuscripts and inscriptions.

	Manuscripts	Inscriptions
a.	Manuscripts were written on palm leaves, barks of tree or paper.
b.		To write inscriptions a person had to use sharp tools.
c.		Inscriptions did not get destroyed as easily.

Match the following:

Archaeologist

Historians

Archaeological source

Primary source

Secondary source

Rice first grown in this area

Coins

To discover the past, they excavate (dig) to find objects that may have survived because they were made of bone, baked clay, stone or metal.

To the north of the Vindhya

Buildings, sculptures, pots

History book

Scholars who study the past