

Open the brackets using the (to) infinitive or the -ing form.

1. I admit _____ (work) with him for a while.
2. She expects _____ (receive) the parcel in a few days.
3. The rescue workers practice _____ (climb) high walls and buildings.
4. It's worth _____ (try) to make her _____ (do) bungee jumping.
5. She loved _____ (look) at clouds when she was a child.
6. He didn't deny his strange habit _____ (watch) his neighbours through binoculars.
7. We are eager _____ (work) with this group of specialists.
8. I would like _____ (watch) something adventurous on TV but most of the programmes keep _____ (show) soap operas about silly housewives.
9. He saw that Mary was hungry and suggested _____ (have) lunch in the nearest café and even offered _____ (pay) for it.
10. Jane promises _____ (cook) burrito for dinner, but we fancy _____ (eat) out tonight.
11. We couldn't help _____ (accept) the invitation to spend the weekend with the Smiths.
12. The children are busy _____ (get) ready for the hiking trip. They plan _____ (spend) a few days on the bank of the Oka. Oleg is especially eager _____ (go) because he is fond of _____ (fish). And Marina is looking forward to _____ (take) photos of the beautiful sunsets.
13. Svetlana keeps _____ (ask) her parents to buy or take a kitten. Her dad doesn't mind _____ (have) a pet at home but her mother didn't even want _____ (listen) to her.
14. My dad used _____ (play) in a band when he was young. He is really good at _____ (play) the guitar and we often ask him _____ (play) something in the evening.
15. There's no point in _____ (argue) on the question. The boss will never allow us _____ (change) anything in the project.
16. We decided _____ (surf) on holidays. We're going _____ (rent) the necessary equipment in the hotel.
17. The couriers have difficulty in _____ (make) deliveries on time because of the traffic jams.

