

VOCABULARY EMOTIONS

Complete the sentences with an adjective or a verb from the word in brackets.

1. Working overtime for two weeks in a row is really _____ (exhaust). I desperately need vacation.
2. Ben was so _____ (disappoint) when he failed his certification.
3. I'm so afraid of flying. The idea of getting on a plane _____ (terrify) me.
4. I'm so dependent on technology that if something stops working it makes me _____ (frustrate).
5. You should try this new learning resource I have found. It's really _____ (amaze).
6. I was so _____ (embarrass) when my phone rang in the middle of the meeting.
7. The talk from Elon Musk has actually _____ (inspire) me to set up my own business.
8. I find the London underground very _____ (confuse). I've got on the wrong train many times.
9. We were _____ (thrill) that so many people left such positive feedbacks.

Complete the chart.

Verb	-ed adjective	Other adjective
delight	delighted	delightful
Impress
Offend
Scare stress

Complete the sentences with the words from the previous exercise.

1. He was _____ when someone suggested that he may have cheated during the certification.
2. We were _____ to know that so many people liked our presentation.
3. Your performance has been really _____ over the last couple of months. This promotion is definitely well-deserved.
4. When I was travelling by plane last time we got into a really strong turbulence. That was a really _____ experience I should say.
5. She's a bit _____ at the moment since she has to hand all her work and also learn the ropes in her new position.
6. I'm _____ with your English. You speak very well.
7. I found his sexist comments really _____.
8. Our tech lead is really good at staying calm in all kinds of _____ situations.