

Listen and do your best!

Before listening, think about your weekends and try to answer the questions.

1. What do you like to do on the weekend?
2. What type of things do you have to do on the weekend?
 - Go shopping?
 - Go to the grandparents?
 - Take care of your brothers and sisters?
 - Clean your house?

Now, it is guessing time. Listen to the first part of the dialogue between two friends Alice and Tom.

- Tom is too busy this weekend. What can be the reason?
- What type of things does he have to do?

Activity 1:

Listen to the whole dialogue and tick the responsibilities Tom has to do.

Vacuum the carpets

☐

Clean up the bedroom

☐

Tidy up the books

☐

Return the books

☐

Help brother to do his homework

☐

Take care of baby sister

☐

Load and empty the dishwasher

☐

Take out the garbage

☐

Clean up the house

☐

Wipe the floor

☐

Do the laundries

☐

Iron the clothes

☐

Activity 2:

Listen the dialogue again and put the chores Tom must do under the correct place in the table.

Clean up the bedroom	Take care of your baby sister	Help your brother	Tidy up the books	Go to the city library
----------------------	-------------------------------	-------------------	-------------------	------------------------

Saturday Morning	Saturday afternoon	Sunday

Activity 3:

Read the statements and check they are true or false.

1. Tom is responsible for iron the clothes. ☐
2. Tom doesn't like taking care of his baby sister. ☐
3. Tom has to do his responsibilities or his dad gives extra chores at home. ☐
4. Tom's brother has important exams next week. ☐
5. Alice doesn't have any responsibilities at home. ☐

Think about your weekends;

- What kind of chores do you do at weekends?
- Do you have any responsibilities?
- Do you like your responsibilities?

Answer the questions one more time at the end of the listening, and talk to your parents about their weekend responsibilities.

I must do my homework on Saturday, and I must tidy up my room. I like study but I don't like my responsibilities at home. I like playing games in our garden at weekends.
