

"Copacabana (At The Copa)"*Verbs - Past Simple. Listen and put in the verbs.

Her name                      Lola, she                      a showgirl
With yellow feathers in her hair and a dress                      to there
She would merengue and do the cha-cha
And while she                      to be a star
Tony always                      bar
Across the crowded floor, they                      from 8 till 4
They                      young   and they                      each other
Who                      ask for more?

[Chorus:]

At the copa (CO!) Copacabana (Copacabana)
The hottest spot north of Havana (here)
At the copa (CO!) Copacabana
Music and passion                      always the fashion
At the copa.... they                      in love

His name                      Rico
He                      a diamond
He                      escorted to his chair, he                      Lola dancing there
And when she                      he                      her over
But Rico                      a bit too far
Tony                      across the bar
And then the punches                      and chairs                      smashed in two
There                      blood and a single gun shot
But just who                      who?

[Chorus]

At the copa... she                      her love

Her name is Lola, she                      a showgirl
But that                      30 years ago, when they                      have a show
Now it's a disco , but not for Lola
Still in the dress she                      wear / hear
Faded feathers in her hair
She sits there so refined, and drinks herself half-blind
She                      her youth and she                      her Tony
Now she's lost her mind

[Chorus]

At the copa... don't fall in love
Don't fall in love
