

OCCUPATION

Place the people on the ladder to practise ordinal numbers

Name:

|                                                   | 10th |                                                |
|---------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------|
| Put the taxi driver on the 10 th step. |      | Put the policeman on the 9 th step. |
|                                                   | 9th  |                                                |
| Put the farmer on the 7 th step.       |      | Put the fisherman on the 3 rd step. |
|                                                   | 8th  |                                                |
| Put the postman on the 8 th step.      |      | Put the teacher on the 5 th step.   |
|                                                   | 7th  |                                                |
| Put the soldier on the 2 nd step.      |      | Put the chef on the 4 th step.      |
|                                                   | 6th  |                                                |
| Put the firefighter on the 1 st step.  |      | Put the doctor on the 6 th step.    |
|                                                   | 5th  |                                                |
|                                                   | 4th  |                                                |
|                                                   | 3rd  |                                                |
|                                                   | 2nd  |                                                |
|                                                   | 1st  |                                                |

