

READ AND ANSWER

Nasi lemak is a simple dish consisting of fragrant rice cooked with coconut milk and sometimes pandan leaf, served with a side of deep-fried anchovies, groundnuts, an egg, cucumber slices, and a sweet-spicy gravy. The national dish of Malaysia is usually sold triangular packets of banana leaf or wax paper.

1. What is nasi lemak?

- a. National dish of Malaysia
- b. National dish of Thailand

2. What are the usual sides of nasi lemak?

fried anchovies
cucumber slices
tomato slices

3. How is nasi lemak usually sold?

- a. In triangular packets of banana leaf
- b. In paper box

4. When do we usually eat nasi lemak?

- a. breakfast
- b. lunch
- c. dinner