

Select all the modal verbs

|        |      |      |       |
|--------|------|------|-------|
| be     | been | can  | could |
| did    | do   | have | may   |
| might  | must | need | shall |
| should | want | will | would |

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Which of the following rules are true of all modal verbs? | Followed by the infinitive form of the verb       |
|   | Followed by the base form of the verb             |
|   | Can never change form                             |
|   | Always changes form in the past tense             |
|   | Sometimes changes form depending on the next verb |
|   | Add "not" after the modal to make it negative     |
|   | Add "not" before the modal to make it negative    |
|   | Modal verbs are a type of auxiliary verbs         |

In which of the following situations do we use modal verbs?

Select all that apply

|             |             |             |        |                    |
|-------------|-------------|-------------|--------|--------------------|
| Possibility | Probability | Permission  | Offer  | Request            |
| Obligation  | Ability     | Prohibition | Advice | Logical conclusion |