

Name: _____

Reading Comprehension

Story Element: Setting

1. Tick the boxes beside the TWO statements that are true.

The setting tells _____.

where the story takes place.

who wrote the story.

when the story takes place.

2. Choose the picture that shows where the events in the selection took place.

Neighborhood

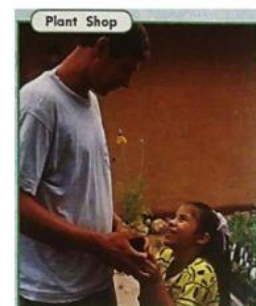

Home

3. Choose the picture that shows when the events in the selection took place.

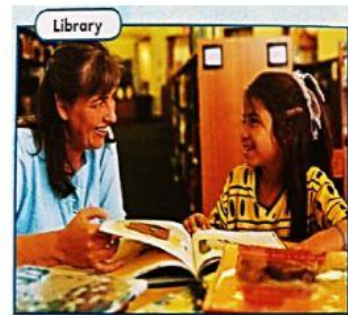

There were many places that Lucia visited in her neighborhood. Read each statement carefully. Then, choose the correct place Lucia visited.

4. Lucia got a snack when she visited this place. Where in her neighborhood did she visit?

5. Lucia read a book when she visited this place. Where in her neighborhood did she visit?

6. Lucia met a car mechanic when she visited this place. Where in her neighborhood did she visit?

7. Why is the setting important to a story? Tick the boxes beside the TWO statements that are true.

It tells the reader who took the pictures.

It helps the reader to see where the characters are in the story.

It helps the reader to see when the story happened.