Sally and Peter ride their bikes most weekends. Last Saturday it was very cold. The children asked, 'Mum, can we go to the forest near the lake on our bikes?' Mum said, 'No, there is lots of ice on the roads - it's dangerous.' Dad said, 'Let's look on the internet and see what you can do today.' The family looked at the town website to find out something different to do, Peter said, 'Look! There's a new place on Island Road where we can go ice skating.' 'Let's go there!' said Sally. 'OK, get your coats, hats, and scarves,' said Mum. 'You need to wear warm clothes for skating.' 'OK, Mum.' said the children. 'Shall we wear the sweaters Grandma and Grandpa bought us?' 'Yes, do that.' said Mum. 'And I can drive you to see them on the way home. They always love seeing you.' added Dad.
