

A The words in blue below are used in the reading passage on pages 52–53. Read their definitions and then complete each sentence with the correct word.

A tribe is a group of people who live in the same place and share a common culture.

Voting is the activity of choosing someone or something in an election.

If something exists in the virtual world, it exists only on computers or on the Internet.

Remote areas are far away from cities and places where most people live.

An environmentally responsible person is concerned with the protection of the natural world of land, sea, air, plants, and animals.

When you advertise a product, you provide information about it so that more people know about the product.

A tool can refer to anything you use for a particular task or purpose.

If something is global, it affects all parts of the world.

1. A lot of companies _____ their products on TV and online.
2. Many companies these days are trying to be more _____ friendly.
For example, some automobile companies are producing more electric cars.
3. The Internet is a useful _____ for communication.
4. Some online games have _____ cities. These places aren't real; they only exist online.
5. In most democracies, people choose their leaders by _____ for them.
6. There are still some _____ areas in the developing world that don't have Internet access.
7. Most social media sites are _____—people from all over the world can use them.
8. In traditional Fijian society, each _____ has its own chief or leader.