

to BE – positive sentences

1. I _____ ten years old.
2. She _____ sixty.
3. It _____ an English book.
4. We _____ Polish.
5. You _____ twelve.
6. He _____ is thirteen years old.
7. They _____ orange notebooks.

are      are      are      is      is      is      am to BE – negative sentences

1. She _____ ten years old, she's nine.
2. I _____ happy, I'm sad.
3. We _____ German, we're Polish.
4. They _____ orange notebooks, they're yellow.
5. He _____ thirteen years old, he's fifteen.
6. You _____ twelve years old, you're eleven.
7. It _____ a book, it's a notebook.

'm not    aren't    aren't    aren't    isn't    isn't    isn't

Sentences with the same meaning. MATCH.

1. My name is Tim.	a) He's 13.
2. Tom, Sally and you are eleven.	b) It's new.
3. Robert is thirteen years old.	c) I'm Tim.
4. Mrs Wilson is my English teacher.	d) We're good friends.
5. My computer is new.	e) They're great.
6. You and I are good friends.	f) You're 11.
7. Tim, Tom and Gina are great.	g) She's my English teacher.