

VS2.2 Match

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1. _____ What language group was spoken by the Powhatan in the Tidewater region?  | A. Wood and other materials found around them. |
| 2. _____ Things that tell a lot about the people who have lived in Virginia are artifacts. What is one example of an artifact that might tell us about the Indians who lived there? | B. Iroquoian                                   |
| 3. _____ The climate in Virginia is mild, with how many distinct seasons? It results in a variety of _____?   | C. Fish and pick berries                       |
| 4. _____ What type of animal skin was used for clothing?  | D. Summer, three sisters                       |
| 5. _____ Native Americans had to adapt to their environment. An example would be what change with the seasons?  | E. Piedmont region                             |
| 6. _____ The Siouan language was primarily spoken in what region?   | F. Pottery                                     |
| 7. _____ The Cherokee were a part of the group that spoke what language?  | G. Deer skin                                   |
| 8. _____ Virginia's Indians are referred to as Eastern Woodland Indians. What would they have used to make their shelter?   | H. Four, vegetation                            |
| 9. _____ In the spring the Indians would have done what for food?   | I. Algonquian                                  |
| 10. _____ The Indians grew crops, such as corn, beans, squash in what season? Corn, beans, and squash are referred to as _____?   | J. Food they ate                               |