The Lion and The Mouse

One day, a lion was sleeping in the forest.
A little mouse passed by and saw the lion.
He liked the lion's mane and started to play with it.
The lion got up and got very angry.
He caught the mouse in his paws and roared loudly.
He asked the lion not to eat him.
He promised the lion to help him someday.
A few days later, the lion got caught in a hunter's net.
He roared loudly and asked for help.
The mouse came running to help the lion.
He bit the net with his sharp teeth.
The lion and the mouse were good friends from that day.
