

Vocabulary- Culture Shock

Noun	Verb	Adjective	Other notes
Process	process	processed	A long/difficult process Go through a/the process
Stage	X	X	First/Next/Final/Important stage
Adjustment	Adjust	X	Make an adjustment to something (make a change) Be an adjustment (to be different from what you are used to)
Rejection	Reject	X
X	Fit in	X	Fit in with a group
Behaviours	Behave	X	Good/Bad/Violent/Normal behaviours
Symptom	X	X	Symptom of something Be a/Have symptoms of something
Distinction	X	distinct	Make a distinction between Be distinct

Complete the sentences with the missing vocabulary word. Make sure to choose the correct part of speech.

1. When I started school, it was difficult to _____ with my new roommates because we were so different.
2. Arriving late to class and leaving early are normal _____ in some places but not in Canada.
3. Acculturation is the final _____ of culture shock.
4. I need to make an _____ to my schedule because I have two appointments at the same time.
5. Elliot has _____ of a cold. He has a runny, stuffy nose and is sneezing a lot.
6. You need to make a _____ between your things and mine so we don't confuse them.

Rewrite the following sentences using the part of speech provided. Write your answers in your notebook, and be prepared to share on Thursday.

1. It is unacceptable to behave violently. (behaviours)
2. Let's adjust the due dates for this assignment. (adjustment)
3. It takes a long time to process visa applications. (process-n)
4. Rejection is difficult. (reject-hint: use passive voice)