

Respecting Our Differences

Read and write the following notes. Then complete the research project.

Cultural, ethnic and religious differences make people unique and special.

Religious differences include worship experiences and religious beliefs.

Cultural differences include; food, entertainment, dress, language and cultural heritage.

Ethnic differences include; race, nationality, language, and cultural heritage.

People are diverse and have different ways of doing things but we all have basic needs. Like humans, animals also need food, water, shelter, love and affection.

It is important to show respect for people's beliefs and not judge them as being wrong or unimportant.
