The Tortoise and the Hare
an Aesop Fable

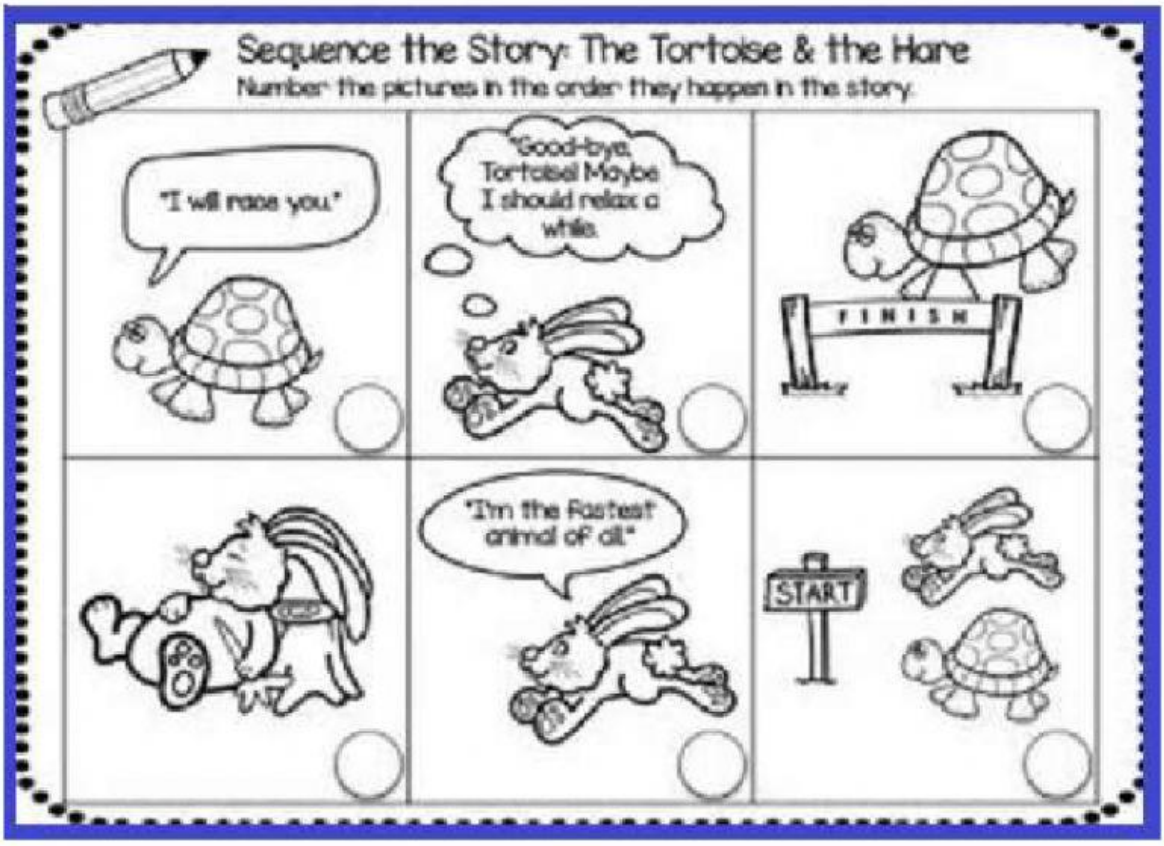

(Adapted from: http://www.storyit.com/Classics/Stories/tortoisehare.htm#)

One day a hare was so proud about how fast he could run. He even laughed at the tortoise, who was so slow. The tortoise stretched out his long neck and challenged the hare to a race, which, of course, made the hare laugh.

The forest animals met for the race. The race begun, and the hare, soon left the tortoise far behind. About halfway the hare stopped to take a little nap. Then he took another break to eat breakfast.

The tortoise, in the meantime, continued walking. He never stopped, but took one good step after another. When the hare finally got back to the race, the tortoise was almost to the finish line. The hare ran as fast as he could to the finish line, where he met the tortoise, who was patiently awaiting his arrival.
