

- 4 Copy the table to your note book. Put the following statements into the most appropriate column.

architecture can be beautiful beauty is not art some buildings are ugly architecture needs creativity and imagination architecture is functional both art and architecture consider colour, shape and texture people like to visit great architecture architects turn imaginative ideas into real life
Architecture is art	Architecture is not art