Relie les éléments

grapefruit a fight a ship to cut to freak out to grab

Utilise les verbes fournis et conjugue-les au prétérit BE + ing

When I phoned Julia, she was with Naomi, and they _____ (work) on their school project.

Julia said she _____ (try) to find information about pirates on the Internet.

I told them I _____ (write) a joke for my English class.

Utilise les éléments fournis et complète les phrases avec le prétérit BE+ing

Tom : So, what _____ (you/do) last night at nine o'clock?

Rose : I was at home, alone!

Tom : At home! Really? _____ (you/watch) TV? Give me the name of the film!

Rose : Oh no, I _____(not/watch) TV! I was so tired, I was in bed!

Conjugue les verbes fournis au prétérit simple ou au prétérit BE+ing

Here's my story! Last summer I was in Dundee with a friend, on a stormy day.

We _____(visit) a castle when a very strange old man_____(come) up to us.

He _____(introduce) himself as the castle guide, Callum Mc Gregor and said : "there's a tour starting in ten minutes." We _____(decide) to join the tour. After visiting the main rooms, we _____(go) down to the cellar. Mr Mc Gregor _____(tell) us scary stories about prisoners when all of a sudden, we _____ (hear) a horrible scream and the guide just _____ (vanish).

LIVEWORKSHEETS

I _____ (scream) and my friend completely _____ (freak) out.

LIVEWORKSHEETS