

In the following phrases and sentences, the words which may have weak forms are in red. Choose from the drop-down menu to say whether the weak form or the strong form would be appropriate in this context.

- 1 You ought to get some.
- 2 Look at the road.
- 3 There were three there.
- 4 That's all the money that I have.
- 5 They can't have more than that.
- 6 Some of them chose the meal
 that I had.

Click the button under a word if you think it is pronounced with a weak form.

I want him to call her

Post from home can take a week

Take your coffee from over there

She needs to get fit

We can get a bus from the station

John eats more than Bill does

