

Name: _____ Grade: _____

Seams

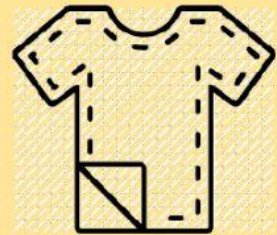

Section A: Fill in the Blank spaces.

Word Bank: feed dog hand wheel needle presser foot spool pin

- The machine part that raises and lowers the needle is _____.
- The upper thread is held by the _____.
- When stitching, the fabric is held in place by the _____.
- The part that advances one stitch at a time is the _____.

Section B Fill in the blank spaces.

- Two types of seams are _____ and _____.
- A seam is a row of _____ that joins _____ pieces of fabric together neatly.
- The plain seam may be also known as a _____ seam or a _____ seam.
- The standard seam allowance is _____ inch long.
- Three types of seam finishes include _____, _____ and _____.

Section C Answer all questions below.

- Name a seam that is self-neatening.

- What is the trimmed length of the French seam?

Section D Name the type of seam pictured below.

