

Listen and decide if the words are pronounced with a strong or a weak form.

We need to build on that strong foundation as the UK leaves the EU.

The first thing I'm gonna do is look up who I'm buying from.

We walked to and from school every day.

You really can be that powerful. You can leave the pain behind.

And he overcame an illness that should have killed him.