

1. Write the definitions of the life processes

2. Say the term for each definition. Some may be repeated.

It is made up of cells:

They are made up of organs and muscles:

They have cytoplasm, organelles and membrane:

Stomach is a

It is made up of tissues:

They form muscles and organs:

Their nucleus controls everything:

3. Organisation of living things. Order the previous terms for size.

4. Write the names of the different kingdoms

5. Fill the table with information about the kingdoms

Examples	Characteristics	Examples	Characteristics

Examples	Characteristics	Examples	Characteristics

Examples	Characteristics

6. Why are some animals classified as vertebrates?

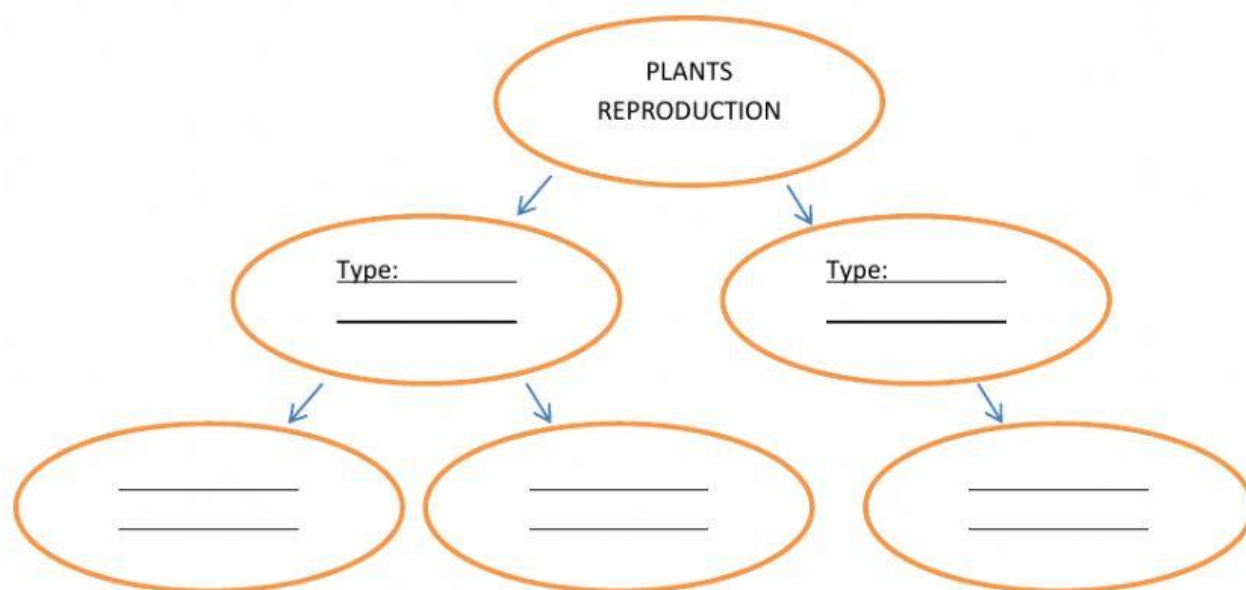

7. Why are some animals classified as invertebrates?

8. Put the following words in the correct column

arthropods mammals amphibians coelenterates porifera reptiles annelids echinoderms birds fish molluscs

Invertebrates	Vertebrates

9. Fill the schema with information about plants reproduction

10. Explain the different stages of the photosynthesis

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

11. How can we classify the relationships between individual organisms? Explain them

12. Define the terms:

1. Population:

2. Community: