Amy lives in Edinburgh, a city in the south of Scotland. It's an old city and there are lots of shops and monuments. She lives in a house with her family. Her house is small but there is an attic full of toys and old books. She plays there every day after school and her brother Stuart reads books. He wants to be a teacher in the future.
Amy and her family like Edinburgh because it's an interesting place and the people are really friendly. Their favourite places are the castle and the zoo. They sometimes go to Glasgow to see Amy's aunt, Daisy. Last weekend they went to visit her.
