An informal email

Answer this question.

You are going to spend a weekend with your friend from California called Chris Evans. Read the email you have just received from Chris and the notes you have made. Write a reply to Chris using all the notes (in red). You should write approximately 150 words.

New message from Chris

Hi,

I'm very happy that we'll see each other next weekend! A friend of mine plays in a band and they're going to play a small concert on Friday evening. Would you like to go and see my friend playing with the group?

Great idea!

We need to decide what to do on Saturday. We could either take a trip down the Bridge in a boat, I am sure you'd love the beautiful landscape. Or we could go and visit the Historical places. Can you tell me which activity you'd rather do?

Tell Chris.

I wanted to ask your advice about something. I've just started to learn Spanish but I only have one hour of lessons every week. Can you give me some advice on how to improve my Spanish as quickly as possible?

Give some advice.

Just one final thing. You told me in your last message that you have a new skateboard. Could you bring it with you to California? I'd love to have a go on it.

Not Possible. Say why.

All the best,

Chris
