PREFIXES 1

PART I

Match the words on Column A to their meanings on Column B.

COLUMN A		COLUMN B
1. malfunction	( )	with more people than it fits in a place
2. misread	( )	a large store where people can buy groceries and other items
3. antipollution	( )	that does not weigh much
4. counterpart	( )	a device or substance used to prevent or fight contamination
5. overcrowded	( )	that doesn't work properly
6. overconfident	( )	a person who is widely recognized for his/her talent
7. ultracritical	( )	the other part of a set
8. ultralight	( )	to read something incorrectly
9. superstar	( )	a person who criticizes excessively
10. supermarket	( )	having too much confidence in one's skills

LIVEWORKSHEETS

PART II

Use the words from the box to complete the given sentences. Use each word once.

supersonic – ultramodern – overslept – antifreeze – countermove – malformation – misinformed

1. Some jets can travel at _____ speeds. Pilots train very hard to learn to maneuver the jets at such fast speeds. They are amazing!
2. I believe the secretary _____ the parents about the time of the meeting. They are going to be all confused!
3. My friend's dad bought an _____ car. It has the latest technology and a fashionable design.
4. The mechanic some _____ in the engine to prevent any damages over the next winter season.
5. The two chess players were taking their time thinking what should be their next _____ in order to win the match.
6. Apparently, the little puppy was born with a _____ on its front paws so the vet will take it into surgery to fix the problem.
7. Camille arrived quite late to her office. After staying up late studying for her exam she _____ and didn't hear her alarm clock.

LIVEWORKSHEETS