

REWRITE THESE SENTENCES Use the words in brackets without changing them
---	--

I'm sure they aren't working.

(CAN'T)

"Have the children come back from school?" asked Jonas.

(WANTED TO KNOW)

They don't find a solution because they don't understand the problem.

(IF)

Pablo Picasso painted Guernica in 1937.

(BY)

Mr Robson travels abroad twice a year. He's probably a millionaire.

(MUST)

It's necessary for him to wear warm clothes.

(HAS TO)

'I'll help you with your maths homework tonight, son,' said Steve.

(TOLD)

He loves sports now, but he didn't like them when he was a child.

(USE TO)

Someone has taken all my money from my wallet.

(BE

We never travelled abroad when I was a child.

(USE

'What are you doing at the weekend?' Sarah asked me.

(WANTED TO KNOW)

Jane has been absent for a week. It's possible she's ill.

(MIGHT)

My husband is not a famous actor. That's why he doesn't earn a lot of money.

(IF)

'I've never taken English lessons before' Mary said to her teacher.

(TOLD)

It is not necessary for you to wait any longer.

(HAVE TO)

James definitely isn't eighteen yet.

(CAN'T)