An important _____ of effective work teams is the _____ capacity. Every member has areas of _____ and some weak spots. A good team member provides some unique skills and/or _____ that move the team forward. In this sense, you shouldn't expect every team member to be good at the same things or share the same tasks. On the contrary, the key to _____ teamwork is knowing how each member can _____ in a way to use their best _____, and how these different abilities can perform together in a group to effectively reach its objectives.
