Subject and Predicate

All sentences have two parts

A subject and a predicate

The subject is the naming part.

It tells us who or what the sentence is about.

The predicate is the doing or telling part. It tells us what the subject does or is doing.

Read the sentences carefully then say whether the underlined part is the subject or predicate of the sentences.

1. The dog likes to chase the cat.

2. Our school is in the community of Belair.

3. Hamal is eating his lunch greedily.

4. My bag is on the chair.

5. Daddy cooks delicious meals for us.

6. The man walks quickly across the street.
