

Family relationships and technology

1 According to the video classifying the sentences below into positive effects and negative effects.

Addiction to social media

Increase community engagements

Reduce the attention of the family

Social media affected family culture

People can share their current location

Connectivity and communication with family

Reduce family importance

Children can keep contact with parents

Isolation from family

Face to face communication decrease

Positive effects	Negative effects

2 Join with arrows the definitions in the first column with the concepts in the second one.

With the help of social media platforms, they can easily make groups and communities of their family

Connectivity and communication with family

Social media helps to students who live alone and far to stay connected and communicate with their family.

Social media affected family culture

Social media creates an environment for people in which people can make connections with other people belongs to other places in the world.

Increase community engagements

The majority of the users of social media are seems busy all day and night in scrolling and using different social media platforms.

Addiction to social media

3 Listen and choose the correct option.

Reduce family importance - Isolation from family

Children can keep contact with parents. - Addiction to social media

Isolation from family - Face to face communication decrease

Increase community engagements - People can share their current location

Isolation from family - Increase community engagements