Rules

- We use the (1) past simple to talk about actions or situations in the past (often one action happened after the other).
- We use the (2) to talk about an activity that was already happening at a moment in the past. We don't say if this activity finished or not.
- We often use the (3) and the (4) together to show that an action happened in the middle of an activity.
- We can use when, as or while to introduce the activity in the (5)

When/As/While I was walking to school, I saw a group of dogs.

- We generally use when to introduce the action in the (6)

I was walking to school with Alicia when we saw a group of dogs.

Alicia goes to Canada to stay with Emily. Complete Emily's blog with the past simple or past continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

One morning, Alicia (1) woke up (wake up) early for school and she (2) (go) downstairs. I (3) (talk) loudly to my dad in the kitchen. We (4) (stop) talking and I (5) (say), 'Look outside! There's 20 cm of snow on the ground. We'll have to ski to school!' Alicia (6) (feel) excited and nervous at the same time. Snow in Mexico City is very rare and she (7) (not know) how to ski. I (8) (help) her to put on the skis. As we (9) (set off) for school, one of the neighbours (10) (shout), 'Everything is closed. No school today!'

We (11) (take off) our skis and we (12) (start) playing in the snow.
