

Student name: _____

Group: _____

Have to

We use "have to" to talk about something that we need to do.

I have to go to school tomorrow. / She has to clean her room.

He doesn't have to write the report. / We don't have to go for practice today.

Q: Does he have to wake up at 6:00 a.m.? / Do they have to wake up at 6:00 a.m.?

A: Yes, he has to. / No, they don't have to.

A. What do you have to do in your English class? Look at the example and fill in the blanks with "have to" or "don't have to."

1. _____ We have to _____ learn grammar.
2. _____ swim.
3. _____ learn vocabulary.
4. _____ do review exercises.
5. _____ sing songs.
6. _____ answer questions in English.
7. _____ draw.
8. _____ read passages.

B. Fill in the blanks with "have to." Use the words in the box to help you.

Recycling helps to save our Earth and make the environment better. In some countries like Japan, everyone helps out in recycling. People 1. _____ their trash into different types because only some kinds of trash can be recycled. Different neighborhoods may have different rules for separating trash. Trash bags with food waste 2. _____ or they may smell bad.

Different kinds of trash are collected on different days. People 3. _____ the correct trash on those days. Everyone 4. _____ to protect our Earth!

- ✓ be tied up
- ✓ separate
- work together
- ✓ take out