

  EMILY BRONTË represented by a book and a feather quill pen, was a famous English writer of the 19th century. She was chosen for our school house because she was creative, intelligent and hard-working.	  JAMES COOK represented by a ship's wheel, was a captain and an explorer. He sailed around the world and discovered many places like New Zealand in 1769. He is a great role model because he was curious, adventurous and knowledgeable.	  AMY JOHNSON represented by a plane, was a pioneering English aviator. She was the first female pilot to fly alone from Britain to Australia in 1930, so she was courageous, strong and independent.	  WILLIAM WILBERFORCE represented by a broken chain, was an English politician and a leader of the movement to stop the slave trade in 1833. He was determined, fair and compassionate.
