

Shops and Services

1 Where can you buy these items? Complete the names of the shops and services.

- | | |
|------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1 a new house | 6 a stamp |
| 2 a loaf of bread | 7 a bottle of tablets |
| 3 a hoodie | 8 a necklace |
| 4 a cup of tea and some cake | 9 a pair of glasses |
| 5 a pen and a notebook | 10 some sausages |

2 Circle the correct words.

- 1
A Do you like my new jeans? They were £12.
B Really? That's a ¹bargain / ²refund!
- A I know. There was a ³sale / ⁴receipt at my favourite clothes shop. Everything was half price.
And there was a ⁵price tag / ⁶special offer as well: buy two pairs of jeans and you get a free scarf.
- 2
A Excuse me, this bag hasn't got a ⁷coupon / ⁸price tag. Can you tell me how much it is, please?
B Yes, of course. It's €25.
- 3
A Do you want to have lunch with me? I've got a ⁹coupon / ¹⁰refund from Trend magazine.
It gives me a 10% ¹¹bargain / ¹²discount at Café Blanco.
B Great idea!
- 4
A I bought these headphones yesterday, but they don't work.
B Oh dear. Have you got the ¹³coupon / ¹⁴receipt?
A Yes, here it is.
B Thank you. We can give you a ¹⁵refund / ¹⁶discount, or we can replace your headphones.

© 2014 English Grammar

3 Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

1	The biggest shopping centre in the world is in China. It's got more than 2,300 shops.	☐
2	There are 110,000 post offices in England.	☐
3	In most butcher's shops in the UK, you can usually buy fish and chips.	☐
4	The first launderette opened in 1934 in London.	☐
5	The most popular takeaway food in the UK is Chinese food.	☐
6	DIY means Do It Yourself.	☐
7	The first ever online store was a pizza takeaway shop.	☐
8	The first Monday in January is the busiest online shopping day in the UK.	☐