Write the correct answer on the blank to complete the sentence and identify whether it is in the FIRST or SECOND conditional.

1. If my mother knows about this, we _____(be) in trouble.   _____
2. Tell me the truth if you _____ (can).   _____
3. Unless you tell the truth, you _____(can) be set free.   _____
4. Our lives would be much easier if my father _____ (work)   _____ abroad.
5. If I didn't know you, we _____ (not/will) be friends.   _____
6. If I were rich, I _____ (will) travel the world.   _____
7. He _____(be) disappointed if he loses the game.   _____
8. I _____ (not/will) worry if I were you.   _____
9. If he shows up, I_____ (be) surprised.   _____
10. If I _____ (speak) good English, I'd have a good job.   _____

Draw a line to match column A to column B

COLUMN A

First Conditional
Second Conditional
Imagined or future situations
 Used with general truth
When if is followed by be, it becomes If I were

COLUMN B

Second conditional
Grammatically correct
if + past simple, would + infinitive
First conditional
if + present simple, will+ infinitive