

UNIT #4 – GRAMMAR #2

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

Definitions with which

Gravity is a force .	It pulls you toward Earth.
Gravity is a force which pulls you toward Earth.
A carnivore is an animal .	It eats meat.
A carnivore is an animal which eats meat.
Skates are special shoes .	You wear them on the ice.
Skates are special shoes which you wear on the ice.
Honey is a sweet food .	Bees make it .
Honey is a sweet food which bees make.

You can use which to combine sentences.

1 Read. Write which when necessary. If it's not necessary, write X.

- Gravity pulls you toward the center of the earth.
- Gravity is the force holds everything in place.
- Tennis is a sport needs two or four people.
- I play tennis with three of my school friends.
- Pedaling makes a bicycle move.

2 Write. Use which and the words provided.

- ice cream / sweet food / eat when it's hot outside.

Ice cream is a sweet food which you eat when it's hot outside.

- markers / tools / use to color pictures

- basketball / sport / play with an orange ball

- butterfly / insect / have beautiful wings

- swing / object / move forward and backward

Activar Windows

3 Write. Complete the sentences using which.

1. A computer is an invention which we use all the time.
2. is an object
3. is a language
4. is a sport
5. is a game
6. is a fruit

4 Look and write. Describe each object using which.

1.  A toothbrush is something which you use to clean your teeth.
2.
3.

Activar Windows
Ir a Configuración de PI

5 Write. Choose an object in your classroom. Write three clues to describe it. Use which.