

PARTS OF THE EAR

Direction: Draw a line to match the correct description of column A to column B.

A

B

Pinna or Auricle

Make the eardrums vibrate as sound waves reach them. It has three tiny bones – Hammer, Anvil and Stirrup.

Eardrum

It is the spiral cavity of the inner ear which produces nerve impulses to

Ear Canal

It provides information to the brain and to help maintain balance.

Middle Ear

It vibrates when the sound waves reach it.

Semicircular Canal

External part of the ear that catches sound waves.

Cochlea

Send and interpret message to the brain.

Auditory Nerves

Catches the sound waves from the pinna running to the middle ear.