Gerunds and Infinitives

1. We expect _____ higher profits in the upcoming season.
   A. to have
   B. having
   C. had
   D. has

2. We encourage our employees _____ foreign languages.
   A. studying
   B. studied
   C. studies
   D. to study

3. You are not permitted _____ pictures in the gallery.
   A. taking
   B. to take
   C. takes
   D. took

4. We are able _____ you a substantial bonus in the coming month.
   A. paying
   B. pays
   C. paying
   D. to pay

5. It is extremely urgent _____ traffic congestion problems in the city area.
   A. to solve
   B. solves
   C. solved
   D. solving

6. We are looking forward to _____ the possibility of working collaboratively.
   A. discussing
   B. discussed
   C. discuss
   D. discussion

7. They agreed to have another meeting tomorrow morning to _____ the ongoing project.
   A. expedited
   B. expedition
   C. expediting
   D. expedite

8. The Japanese restaurant is considering _____ a new series of recipes for local residents.
   A. To introduce
   B. introducing

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. introduce
D. introduced

9. The firm reserves the right _____ for services and change fees without notice.
A. to charge
B. For charging
C. charging
D. charge

10. While attending the seminar, we really enjoyed _____ with representatives from other branches
A. talked
B. To talk
C. talk
D. talking

11. In a effort _____ our labor costs, we are determined to hire more part-timers.
A. had reduced
B. reducing
C. reduce
D. to reduce

12. All factory workers are required _____ to the safety regulations stated in the manual.
A. adhering
B. have adhered
C. to adhere
D. adhere

13. The marketing director is in charge of _____ the firm's image through continuous publicity.
A. promote
B. promotes
C. promoting
D. promotion

14. Most companies like all their employees _____ on innovative products and to believe passionately in their mission.
A. works
B. will work
C. to work
D. be working

15. We expect _____ the project before the end of the month.
A. finishing
B. finish
C. will finish
D. to finish

LIVEWORKSHEETS