

READING ACTIVITIES

1) Fill the gaps:

SOUTH WEST
NORTH EAST

2) Read the text. True or false?

Modbury – a very

Modbury is a small town in the south-west of Britain. It's a pretty town and it's near some beautiful beaches. There are two churches and about 40 shops. The shops include a supermarket, a florist and an art gallery. There's a primary school too.

- a) Modbury is a small town.
- b) Modbury is in the north of Britain.
- c) There is a big shopping centre in Modbury.
- d) There aren't 40 shops.
- e) There is a primary school.

3) Read the text. Which places are in Alicia's town? Choose: Yes/No school

Where I live, by Alicia Gómez

shops

I live in a big town in the north of Spain. In the shopping centre

past it was a small town, but now there are a lot

block of flats

of new buildings. There's a school and there are church

a lot of shops. There isn't a shopping centre.

cinema

We live in a block of flats. It's in the centre of the square

town next to a big square. The square wasn't very nice in the past.

park

But now there are trees and a playground. It's my favourite place.

