SNOW DAY

Today my sister Maggie and I got a big surprise. We did not need to go to school! Instead, we went to Grandma's house. School was canceled because snow was coming. At Grandma's house, we watched from the window as the snow fell. We waited for one hour, two hours, three hours. At last, there was enough snow on the ground to play! We put on our boots. We put on our hats, gloves, and scarves. We zipped up our winter coats. Grandma took us outside, and the first thing we did was lie in the snow then we scooped handfuls of snow into balls. We rolled the balls in the snow to make them bigger. When they were big enough, we used them to make a snowman. We used sticks and rocks to give him a face, but Grandma brought us a carrot for his nose. She also gave us an extra scarf and hat for his head. After that, Grandma took us in and gave us hot chocolate. We sat by the fire and warmed our cold toes. Grandma let us play games the rest of the day until Mom came to take us home. This was the greatest day ever!
